Let's take a trip to see TENRYU-FUTAMATA STATION and TRAIN DEPOT!

Tour with a guide!
TAKE A TOUR OF THE RAILWAY HISTORY MUSEUM & TURNTABLE

1 Tour of Tenryu-Futamata Sta.

The tour kicks off from the quaint waiting room of the station!

2 Visit to the Railroad Water Tank

This tank stored water needed for the steam locomotives that ran on this railway when it was known as the Futamata Line which opened in 1940.

6 Tour of the Railway History Museum

Valuable historical artifacts such as tools and documents that were actually in use are on display here.

3 Visit to the bathhouse

This is where the railroad engineers, who were covered in soot from the locomotive smoke, washed themselves up before finishing their work.

5 Visit to the railway roundhouse

It is made entirely of wood and has a uniquely strong frame to reduce the number of pillars inside.

4 View the railway turntable

Have a look at the turntable located at the station

Getting Here

How to ride the Tenhama Line

The train on the Tenhama Line is operated by only one driver.
※Prepaid transportation cards (Suica, etc) cannot be used

Getting on

- Buy a ticket at the station. (At stations where you cannot buy tickets, simply board the train.)
- Board the train through the back door, and take a numbered ticket. (If you are using a one-day ticket or have already bought a ticket, you do not need to take a numbered ticket onboard.)

Getting off

- If you haven't paid for a ticket, check the fare on the fare table at the front of the train. (Locate the number from your numbered ticket on the fare table to find your fare.)
- Those without a ticket will place the numbered ticket and the fare in the fare box at the front of the train. Those with a ticket will simply place their ticket in the box or show the driver their one-day pass.
- Exit through the door in the first car of the train.
※At the starting and end stations of the line, please give your ticket and fare to the station staff.
※At manned stations along the line during business hours, please give your ticket and fare to the station staff.
